

Divinely Strong...

Ten years ago on September 11, 2001 the United States was awoken to a new world. On that day, nineteen Islamic terrorist hijacked four commercial airline jets, each carrying over 24,000 gallons of jet fuel.

They successfully crashed two of them into the World Trade Center and one into the Pentagon. The fourth jet crashed into a rural field in Pennsylvania thanks to the brave resistance of its passengers.

In reaction to the smoke and burning heat from jet fuel, an estimated 200 people jumped to their deaths from the burning towers. In all, approximately 3000 innocent people were killed at the hands of suicide terrorists eager to murder in the name of Allah.

Some people say all religions point to the same God. They reason that religions have different teachings and names for God but they lead to the same Deity. Please do not say that around me. There isn't enough blood pressure medication in the county to keep me calm when I hear such a statement.

Unlike the Islamic religion, Christians are taught to love everyone and work to share the good news of Christ with all who will listen. Never are we taught to attack or bring harm even to those who do not believe as we do.

The reasonably peaceful world we once knew, no longer exist. It will not exist in my lifetime and probably not in the lifetime of my children.

"¹²Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord..." Psalm 33:12

Though America has been weakened, we are still strong. Today you will hear all sorts of accolades about our leaders, the military, politicians and first responders. But make no mistake about it; America owes its complete gratitude to Almighty God; not Allah; not Buddha; no one but Jehovah God the one and only God.

"Do not let anyone claim tribute of American patriotism if they even attempt to remove religion from politics." George Washington 1st President

"Our constitution was made only for a moral and religious people. It is wholly inadequate to the government of any other." John Adams 2nd President

It is my prayer that Americans will learn from their founding fathers and turn their hearts to God with gratitude. We must remain strong and keep our hearts close to our Lord.

Bro. Bob
Pastor